10:30 & 15:00 ZUM ZUM THEATRE

In a world where animals and people live together, we encounter hippopotamuses that choose a middle path. Are the humans disguised as the animal they wear? Or are they hippos that are searching for themselves inside of the individual that inhabits their body?

HIPPUS is a street theatre show that challenges the appearances and stereotypes imposed by society. Three hippos dance, live and interact with people, but beyond the fun, a message is hidden, one of respect for difference.

Join these hippos on a physical journey that could be a fable, a metaphor, the preliminary reflection for a doctoral thesis on humanity and animality or, simply, a chance for all audiences to find themselves, and enjoy solitude in a better company.

11:30 & 16:15 THINGAMABOB

With an internationally renowned blend of circus, invention and humour, Matt brings to life a giant ball slinging, self-exploding piece of handcrafted gadgetry, inspired by the famous Rube Goldberg machines and Heath Robinson contraptions.

Be part of the mayhem as our intrepid inventor risks nerve wracking failure to bring you one perfect chain reaction... with some help from his little assistant.

Matt Pang is an award winning circus and outdoor arts performer. His work blends circus and audience interaction, invention with laugh out loud humour. Matt's shows have been performed at theatres and festivals in over 15 different countries.

12:45 RHUBARB THEATRE

It's bin day and 2 rambunctious refuse collectors are heroically cleaning the streets. But what's this? A dustbin that refuses rubbish. Delving into its depths, we discover that one man's trash is another man's treasure, as a wonderful myriad of stories and treats ensue from all that is rubbish and recycled.

Rhubarb Theatre bring a dustbin of fun, a black sack of eco messages and heaps of mime, physical theatre, comedy, puppetry, and creativity into this brand-new storytelling piece.

14:00 MIDSUMMER CARNIVAL

A spectacular carnival parade will make its way from Lord Street into the Marketplace in the early afternoon. The lively and colourful parade will be led by young people from the Zodiac All Stars dance troupe, based in Nottingham, accompanied by Montserrat Masqueraders carnival performers and a specially commissioned Summer Queen – dressed in a new costume made with help from the local community.

Local dancers will perform alongside performers dressed in costumes inspired by flora and botanicals from around the world. Artists from Curiosity Creators and Lumo Workshop have created themed decorations for the town centre working with the community, to complement the town's Burning Blast, created by Electric Egg – look out for flags around the town designed by local children.

13:15 & 17:00 JOE GARBETT DANCE

Help two happy hikers on their way and dive into a wholesome, high-energy dance adventure, where tents can dance and massive maps swamp the land. Get Lost is about encouraging curiosities, igniting adventures and pushing past stereotypes.

As the story unfolds (literally, the dance floor is a huge unfolding map!) the relationship between the two relatable characters is ambiguous. The two dancers are empathetic, hyper, soft and tactile as they support, celebrate and solve their way through this wholesome yet high energy performance.
